

Hurricane Preparedness: Emergency Management Functions and the Role of Houston TranStar and Houston Public Works

Brian Mason, Houston TranStar Executive Director

City of Houston
6922 Katy Road
Houston Texas 77024

Abstract

An in-depth look at emergency management functions before, during, and after severe weather events for the City of Houston's Public Works Department and Houston TranStar, the southeast Texas region's transportation management and emergency management facility.

Overview of essential preparedness and response activities, readiness and response timelines, and roles and responsibilities of public entities in the Greater Houston region.